5. Committee Reports: Standing Committees

Education: Collin Garner gave an overview discussion on the AED device. He covered the requirements necessary to own an AED, gave a brief example of how the AED works and also brought to our attention the fact that there are grants available to non-profits to help with the cost of the AED.

Projects & Rides: Rob Adams reported there was a great turn out on the Succor Creek fun ride. Rob also gave an update on the April 18th First aid/CPR course that will be given by the Bogus Basin Ski Patrol.

Rob also informed everyone of the change of dates for the Sawyer training class which will now occur on May 16th, also the Wilson Creek fun ride will be moved to April 26th.

The Backcountry Skills clinic is still on track for May 9th and ads have been placed in the Idaho Statesman and the Messenger Index.

Calendar Sales: Bill Holt reports that the balance of the calendar money needs to be turned in.

Sportsman's Show: Very good turn out this year, a lot more interest in BCHI was expressed.

2015 Horse Expo: Sign ups are still available for April 17-19

State Directors/National Director -

State BOD Meeting/Convention being held in McCall.

Public Lands: Phil Ryan reported the State Legislature opposes the Boulder White Cloud Monument.
