2. 2011 Packing clinic – An overview by Rob

Rob and Robbin need to put together a budget of cost to do Grandjean Clinic, links are being developed and are already being looked at. Need instructors, menus are being reviewed. Costs are being looked at, the clinic must be able to take care of costs. It is hopeful to be able to make it affordable and yet cost effective. Foal for the clinic id that a person could plan a pack trip and be able to do it comfortably. There will be a full week of packing and with your own stock, training to fit your needs. For further information check out the website. This is a pilot project, hope is that this will be a one time project for SBBCH and then other chapters will adopt throughout the state. Continued discussion followed.
