About Life Flight Network

Life Flight Network is a not-for-profit medical transport service owned by a consortium of Oregon Health & Science University, Legacy Emanuel Medical Center, Saint Alphonse Regional Medical Center, and Providence Health & Services - Oregon. All are dedicated to improving patient outcomes by providing helicopter, fixed-wing, and ground ambulance support to seriously ill or injured patients in a safe and timely manner.

We Have You Covered

Life Flight Network has the most extensive critical care transport fleet in the region, including nine helicopters, three fixed-wing aircraft and five ground ambulances. Bases are strategically placed throughout Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Helicopters typically respond within a 150-mile radius of their home base; fixed-wing aircraft are capable of operating throughout North America. Our bases are staffed and available for immediate response seven days per week.

THERE WHEN YOU NEED US

You never know when an emergency can take place. Air Medical Transport from remote locations drastically increases your chance of survival.

WHEN YOU NEED US.

Award Winning Medical Air Transport

The Pacific Northwest and Intermountain West are some of the most spectacular places in the world. We have the opportunity to live, work and play in beautiful open spaces, scenic mountain passes and vast coastal areas and rivers. While beautiful, these locations are often remote and can put you in danger should a medical emergency occur.

Life Flight Network is there for you and your family when these situations arise. We provide life saving transport for seriously ill or injured pediatric and adult patients from the scene of an emergency or from one hospital to another. With the unique combination of air and ground ambulances and skilled personnel, we represent a critical component of local emergency medical systems. Working together with emergency medical services, physicians and hospitals, we quickly and safely transport patients to the nearest medical facilities best equipped to treat them.

A Dedicated Team of Professionals

The Life Flight Network staff consists of highly trained critical care nurses, paramedics and communications specialists who have proven time and time again they are among the finest in the nation. Within seconds of a call, a Life Flight Network communications specialist sets a coordinated emergency response into motion utilizing helicopters, airplanes and ground ambulances. These aircraft

Among 250 medical programs across the United States and eight countries, Life Flight Network has been named 2009 Program of the Year – the most celebrated and prestigious award available to air medical providers – by the Association of Air Medical Services (AAMS).

(CAMTS). Since 1978, more than 50,000 patients have been safely transported over 120,000 square miles of Life Flight Network's coverage area in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Northern Nevada.

and our team members aboard serve as a mobile critical care unit with the ability to perform a wide range of highly-skilled medical functions during transport.

Life Flight Network has more than 32 years experience, offers the highest-quality medical expertise available in critical care transport and is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Medical Transport Systems

Why Should I Become a Member?

Medical emergencies like heart attacks, strokes, injuries and accidents happen every day without warning. When they occur over 25 miles from a medical center, a patient's chance of survival is at increased risk without safe, timely and effective medical transport. That's where Life Flight Network comes in. And when you're a Member, there's absolutely no cost to you.

Benefits

We invite you to become a Member of Life Flight Network or give Membership as a gift to the ones you love. The following are just some of the benefits you and your loved ones will enjoy as Members of Life Flight Network:

- Membership covers you, your spouse and unmarried dependents you claim on your income tax return
- Members will not incur out-of-pocket expenses for medically necessary flights if flown by Life Flight Network or our medical transport partners
- Your Membership helps enhance the Life Flight Network program by allowing us to invest in the latest life-saving equipment while providing highly qualified educators and support to the community
- Your Membership helps ensure anyone in your community who needs life saving transport will receive it

Life Flight Network exists to fulfill a vital role – saving lives – so you can enjoy the great outdoors with the peace of mind that only Life Flight Network and its emergency medical partners can offer.
