Sunday April 26, twelve members of Squaw Butt e and twelve guests meet at the trail head on a sunny Sunday morning.

By 10:30 the trailers had all arrived and horses had been made ready. A brief greeting and safety meeting was follow by the group splitting up into two smaller groups.

The first was lead by Terry and Laurie and left the trail head heading for Wilson Creek Canyon.

About 20 minutes later the second group set off.

We met again at the south end of the Wilson Creek canyon. After a brief rest, the groups reorganized and some took a shorter more direct route back to the trailers, while other made a longer loop to the east through a number of canyon's on the east side of the road.

Everyone was back at the trail head by 14:00 and food was moved from coolers to tables. By 16:00, well feed, all were heading back to their respective homesteads.

Even though I coughed up a lung on the ride, I still had a very good time. Thank you everyone for the great day and sorry I couldn't stay for all the great food. Next time. Sandi and Kori

While we road a "little" farther than anticipated (like 12 miles!) we had a great time. Group was friendly and welcoming and have a great agenda. Free lunch was homemade potluck and yummy after the long ride. Thank you, SBBH for all you do!

I am a member of the Heartland BCH up in our area...does that count for the "non" public rides with your group?

You will need to contact Rob at the number above, but I believe so.

Looks like I have to cancel. I have dogs that day and I see they are not invited. Too bad, they love a good trail ride.

Hi Carrie, Dogs aren't allowed on the trail, but they are welcome at the trailhead as long as they are leashed. Some people leave their dogs tied up, in trailers, in campers, etc. This is a club rule to keep from having potential dog-related accidents with so many horses in the group.

Check out our website at www.sbbchidaho.org to see the rides coming up. Only the "public" rides are open to non-members. Feel free to join though. Good people, good rides, great food. ;)
