

Come join us for Fun and Fellowship, at the 2015 SBBCH Christmas Party

Charles and Ellen's Home, 2790 E Black Canyon Hwy, Emmett, Idaho

Saturday, December 19, 2015

6:00 PM to 9:00 PM

The Chapter will provide a Smoked Turkey prepared by Emmett's bring a pot luck dish to share drink. Paper products requires a serving utensil

We will have an extra special of a Christmas story read by participating, will get a please bring a gently new gift, disguised to make the game a mystery. If new, try to keep the cost to $10.00 or less. There will be an extra special Christmas story read by our MC. After hearing their word, members choose a gift from under the tree, but will not open it, until the end. There will not be a steal this year, so we can enjoy the fellowship and perhaps humor of the gift.

The SBBCH chapter will continue to support the community through the Emmett Food Coalition and PALS. This year the fundraising event will be an extra special poker game. SBBCH was so fortunate to get straight from Vegas, the Nancy and Chick team to run this event. If you are not a poker player, feel free to bring a can/package food or household item to donate. Boxes will be on the porch as you arrive. Dollars collected during this fund raising event will be converted to additional food/household items.

Throughout the evening, the MC may call your word for an extra special door prize too. So see you there. RSVP King at b.mbconger@gmail.com.

Ham and Deep Fried Cajon own, Chef Robbin. So, please and whatever you might like to provided, but if your dish please bring that too.

gift exchange that will be part the MC. At the door all those "word" from Ellen. So, used, handmade, or