Education: no news

Projects August Rob:

- Montana Conservation Corp August 10 – Twenty Mile Creek Drop Camp-Out
- Squaw Creek trail worker bee saw good attendance and 3 miles of trail cleared. The Donesky's camped over and did some trail clearing on Poison Creek on Sunday.

- Stanley: Wilderness volunteers needed help packing a trail crew in and then out. Rob, Dan, Lisa G, Shelly, and Tracy Z packed them in to Hell Roaring Lake and then Imogene Lake.

Pack Support Numbers: Skilled hours totaled 81 at a value of $40/hr. Travel was 56 hours, 2000 miles hauling stock.

Upcoming projects:

- Wilderness Volunteers, September 4 drop camp-Out Imogene Lake
- September 18/19 Kennally Creek Stock Camping. There are a number of trails to pick from to ride.
- State BOD meeting in New Meadows, September 25. 8 AM at the community center. Hosted by Heartland chapter. Dan W has a cabin nearby if someone needs lodging. Let Deborah Samovar know if you will be attending.
- October 10: Day ride to Diamond Basin in the Owyhee's
- October 16: Highway 52 clean up Wild Rose Park
- November 13: fall potluck and party at Roystone Hot springs. 4-8 PM

Recruiting: no new news.

Foundation: None

New Business:

- Dan Waugh discussed possible pack clinic at Cowboy Camp; try and combine with other local chapters for exposure.
- Dan has also been involved with the Eagle Foothills project and the Idaho Horse Council. The city of Eagle has approved it and the BLM is looking at the options. Shooting and motorized sports may get removed as they don't go well with hiking/equestrian, and the neighbors don't like it. Plus, it's a fire hazard. There is a 3-5-year plan.
- Calendars are in and need to be picked up and sold. Scott Morgan has them this year so contact him.

Items were raffled off

Meeting adjourned at 7:35.
